Case Study

Sheffield Hallam University

ResearchGate helps Sheffield Hallam University to find a postdoc for Tissue Engineering research project.

Institution

Sheffield Hallam is the seventh largest university in the UK with more than 30,000 students, including 3,000 students from overseas.

Position

Postdoctoral Researcher - Tissue Engineering

Challenges

• Hands-on experience with specific techniques including SEM, FTIR, DSC, XRF, XRD, Raman, IFM
• Strong range of research skills required

Results

• 1,200 views
• 100+ clicked apply
• Successfully hired for the role

“\textit{We received a number of applicants from ResearchGate, including two who were shortlisted and one who we appointed.}”

Sam Coulby, Senior Recruitment Advisor, Sheffield Hallam University

For more information, visit: solutions.researchgate.net